

NATIONAL RESOURCE & TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE Center for Improving Law Enforcement Investigations

Seeking to improve the quality and equity of investigative outcomes

What Can NRTAC Do for You?

Funded by BJA, the National Resource and Technical Assistance Center for Improving Law Enforcement Investigations (NRTAC) provides training and technical assistance (TTA) and resources related to conducting high-quality investigations. Subject matter experts (SMEs) will deliver TTA to meet the investigative needs of local law enforcement, prosecutors, and public safety agencies.

TTA Services Include

- Comprehensive assessments and recommendations related to agencies' existing investigative policies, practices, and resources
- On site consultation services
- Current research on best practices for investigating specific types of crimes
- Investigative trainings
- Development of investigative training curriculum
- Peer to peer networking
- Provide resources to develop model policies and procedures on investigations
- Create tools to help agencies better track, supervise and organize investigations
- Local partner agency convenings to improve coordination and information sharing on active investigations

Who is Eligible?

NRTAC provides TTA to agencies that play a critical and supporting role from investigation to prosecution. These agencies include, but are not limited to: state, local, and tribal law enforcement investigative units, prosecutors, crime labs, probation and parole, and juvenile justice.

TTA Topic Areas

- Best practices for law enforcement and prosecution on the investigation and prosecution of crimes, such as: homicide, gun crime, non-fatal shootings, robbery, sexual assault, and internet crime
- Crime Gun Intelligence Centers
- Evidence collection, processing and analysis
- Internet crime analysis and evidence gathering
- Multidisciplinary and interagency collaboration
- Research-based (evidence-based) policing
- Witness cooperation and witness protection
- Crime prevention strategies

How to Request TTA

Please submit an online request form through either project's website, or contact the Police Foundation via email or phone.
